

Dear Administrator:

To promote customer self-service initiatives, employers now have the option to report P-31 quarterly wage and contribution information via the Indiana State Teachers' Retirement Fund (TRF) website. This service, known as the P-31 Submission, was introduced as a means to streamline reporting processes.

The on-line process validates files upon submission, which eliminates the need for manual intervention and data manipulation. Errors are identified, recorded and sent back to schools in a summary report that is conveniently forwarded by email. Schools then have the opportunity to correct the errors and resubmit the files. Please be advised this process satisfies the standards and security guidelines that are set forth by the Indiana State Board of Accounts.

Your school corporation has not yet taken advantage of this unique on-line reporting opportunity. I encourage you to use this option as a means to simplify cumbersome reporting responsibilities.

To get started, all you need are a username and password. Please complete and mail the enclosed Subscription Agreement form for the P-31 Submission to receive your school's unique user name and password. For your convenience, instructions on how to use the website are also enclosed. Once you use the P-31 Submission, I am certain you will find the option to be beneficial as it has proven to be for many of Indiana's school corporations.

In the fall of 2004, TRF will initiate an on-line payment transfer process to complement the P31 submission option. When more details are available, you will be notified.

If you or your staff have any questions, please contact James Gray at (888) 286-3544 or by email at jgray@trf.state.in.gov. We welcome the opportunity to address your concerns.

Sincerely,

William E. Christopher
Executive Director
